Prayers for the church, nation, and world:

- For the children's ministry at Antioch, that God would call someone to step forward in leadership
- For the ministries at Williams that reach out to the community, that they would sharing the love of Christ in a fresh and powerful way
- For our leaders to know how to help Afghanistan thrive as a country
- For a peaceful resolution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict
- For the people of Burundi, the Democratic Republic of Congo, and Rwanda

Others I would like to pray for:

Transformation Journal

November 1st, 2009

Inviting you to daily time with God.

Each day the Transformation Journal will offer you a scripture passage and a question or two for reflection. Take a few minutes each day and see what God has for you! The prayer list is also on the back, so please take time to pray for those we have lifted up on Sunday.

Sunday, November 1st

Sermon Notes:

Read John 11:17-44. Imagine yourself as an onlooker in this passage. What is your reaction to Lazarus' resurrection and release from the tomb? What is your impression of Jesus? As someone who is reading this account, how can you embrace the hope that Jesus brings?

---

---

---

---

Monday, November 2nd

Read Revelation 21:1-6a. As you read this picture of our final hope, which part of the passage stands out to you the most? Re-read that section a few times. Talk with God about the hope that you have and how your hope compares with this picture in Scripture.

---

---

---

---

---

Tuesday, November 3rd

Read 1 Corinthians 15:12-26. Paul says that if Christ is not raised then there is no resurrection and we are to be pitied for our misled faith. Why is Jesus' bodily resurrection so important? Talk with God about what you believe about Jesus' resurrection.

---

---

---

---

---

Wednesday, November 4th

Read 1 Corinthians 15:35-58. It is clear though that we will have a resurrected body and not just exist as a disembodied soul after death. How does that impact your understanding of life after death? How do you feel about receiving a transformed body at the resurrection?

---

---

---

---

---

Thursday, November 5th

Read 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18. What is the difference between grieving with hope and grieving without hope? How does God's promise of resurrection give you hope?

---

---

---

---

---

Friday, November 6th

Read Hebrews 6:13-20. Our hope is based on the trustworthiness of God's word. Do you trust God's word? Why or why not? Think about the idea of hope as an anchor for your soul. How can hope anchor you?

---

---

---

---

---

Saturday, November 7th

Read 1 Peter 1:3-9. How do trials effect your faith and hope? This passage encourages us to rejoice in trials because they show our faith and bring glory to God. How can you rejoice in trials?

Sunday, November 8th

As you get ready for worship today, take time to prepare your heart to see God. Offer this prayer: “Living God, as we gather to worship you today, help me to encounter you, to truly worship you, to hear from you and to have my life changed by you. In Jesus' name, Amen.”
