God's faithfulness and Israel's commitment.

In the Old Testament we have people who have made a commitment to God in different and diverse ways. What we find in the Old Testament are people like us, who have commitments and our own routines, yet here is a God (for the Israelites and us) that makes a commitment to be faithful to the end. Here's the kicker, God loved us first and is still committed to loving us, what should our response be?

GATHERING

Welcome and Announcements

Today is All Saint's Sunday; we remember those who have claimed eternal life.

*The Gathering

L: I looked over Jordan, that river we all will eventually cross...

P: O Lord, what a vision.

L: I could see the saints singing and dancing.

I saw grandpa fishing in the Crystal Sea,

P: I heard grandma humming in the kitchen...

O Lord, what a vision.

L: There were countless others, all faithful disciples, gathered worshipping...

P: That old man who sang solos in the choir,

O Lord what a vision.

L: But the most amazing thing I saw as I looked over Jordan...

Was the man standing in the shallows, smiling, saying

All: "Welcome home."

*Prayer for Christ's Presence

Ever-loving God, we bow before you in reverence. You have claimed us as your own; you have endured the cost of our sin. We repent when we fall short, but we are so grateful for your never-ending grace. Today we remember those who have gone before us and we thank you for their lives. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
