God's faithfulness and Paul's commitment

Paul is writing to the church in Rome. In a way he is giving the formula of what it takes to be a Christian. Paul says "Hate what is evil, overcome evil with good, love one another" among many other exhortations. For many of us the Christian life has become a routine, a thing that we do because it's socially acceptable. What I believe it's Paul's message to us is that loving God is a commitment, loving neighbor is a commitment, and doing it takes effort and dedication.
